

of Yellow Jersey" for nine consecutive quarters, a prestigious award that recognizes a Postal district for excellence in customer satisfaction and commitment to professionalism.

Last but not least, in the culmination of his dedication in service to the people of the San Francisco Postal District, Mr. Tucker was the recipient of the Postmaster General Award, one of the top awards given to postal executives.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in this great opportunity to recognize one of our finest public servants, Mr. Scott Tucker. Please join me in wishing Scott Tucker a happy and fulfilling retirement.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALCOA HIGH SCHOOL'S TORNADO FOOT- BALL TEAM

HON. JOHN J. DUNCAN, JR.

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 14, 2005

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, on December 2nd of this year, the Alcoa High School Tornado football team finished its season as the 2005 Class 2A Tennessee state champions after defeating Goodpasture High School of Nashville, 55-13, at this year's championship game in Murfreesboro, TN. This is Alcoa's second straight state championship and the seventh state title in Alcoa High School's history.

This victory capped off an outstanding season for Head Coach John Reid's Tornados as they amassed a record of 14-1. They did so behind the leadership of only nine seniors and a dominant offensive attack led by outstanding play of Quarterback Joei Fiegler, Brandon Warren, recipient of the Mr. Football award as the state's finest player, and Dustin Lindsay, also a finalist for the Mr. Football award and a future University of Tennessee Volunteer.

The Tornado offense lit up scoreboards this season as they scored 40 or more points a remarkable ten times this season, had an amazing five game stretch in which they scored 68, 52, 55, 69 and 91 points respectively and became the first team in Tennessee High School football history to average more than 50 points a game throughout the playoffs.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the readers of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD and my fellow colleagues to join me in congratulating Head Coach John Reid and the Alcoa High School Tornado football team for their outstanding victory. I also include the following news article printed in the Maryville Daily Times. The team's leadership, strength, and determination should be recognized by all, and their sportsmanship and dedication are at a level that should be followed by every high school team in this Country.

SHIVERDECKER, HICKS NAMED MVPs

(By Kelly Franklin)

Shooting fish in a barrel would be similar to the job faced by TSSAA officials in choosing Most Valuable Players after Alcoa's state championship victory over Goodpasture on Friday night.

For the record, the offensive hardware was won by Chris Shiverdecker and Bart Hicks took the defensive trophy. Both were well deserved.

Shiverdecker finished with three touchdowns including a back-breaking, 86-yard kickoff return, and ran for 126 yards on 13 carries.

Hicks led the stiff Alcoa defense with nine tackles, including five solo stops. Using a new 5-2 formation with Hicks roaming from sideline to sideline, the defenders didn't allow Goodpasture to crack the end zone until Alcoa was already up 34-0 late in the third period.

But there was no shortage of other candidates.

As Claude Rains said in the classic movie Casablanca, "Round up the usual suspects."

Start with Dustin Lindsey, just as the Tornados did. Perhaps feeling snubbed by missing out on the Mr. Football award, the future Volunteer scored Alcoa's first two touchdowns and added another on a 47-yard catch-and-run to give his team a 34-0 halftime lead.

He also added 55 rushing yards, contained the Goodpasture run game from his defensive end-linebacker position, and added a fumble recovery for extra measure.

Then consider how often a quarterback is going to tie a state championship record for touchdown tosses and not be chosen.

Joei Fiegler tied that mark in one quarter, as he went 4 for 4 in period two.

That's four completions, four scores. He finished with nine completions on 11 attempts for 140 yards. Only a pass interference call against Goodpasture early in the fourth quarter prevented the mark from being his alone. As in many Alcoa games this year, the left-hander basically shut down his passing attack at the half once the lead was firmly established.

Fiegler, whose current short-list of colleges includes Louisville, North Carolina State and Southern Miss, also punted for a 41-yard average. His first boomer was mis-handled by Goodpasture, recovered by Logan Love (speaking of unsung heroes) and converted into the first Alcoa score of the night.

Throw in Kyrus Lanxter, with two touchdown receptions, and Brian Sommer, who picked off his 12th interception of the season to set up Lanxter's first score.

Alcoa head coach John Reid even offered up a dark-horse entry for MVP status, the offensive line.

"What about the O-line?" asked Reid when queried about the heroes.

"Everyone said they (Goodpasture) were too big and we couldn't move them out, but our line was just tremendous and without them Chris doesn't get those yards," said the third-year skipper.

Shiverdecker and Hicks, both juniors, send a strong signal to future Alcoa opponents that the graduation of Lindsey, Fiegler, Love, Martin White, Brandon Warren and others doesn't mean there's going to be a drop-off.

"They'll be back here next year," said Lindsey. "This is not just us, this is a dynasty."

"We expected the seniors to get those awards," said Shiverdecker, "but it's all just one team working together anyway."

A team, made up of unselfish and talented individuals. And sporting one more championship trophy now.

CELEBRATING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF GRANBY, COLORADO

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 14, 2005

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the town of Granby, Colorado.

Granby is a small town with a population of 1,525 located on the Fraser River with breathtaking views of the Continental Divide and Rocky Mountain National Park. Despite its size, Granby holds an important place within Colorado's history. It was first settled in 1904 and incorporated the next year. The town was established along the railroad line being built by Denver, Northwestern & Pacific and was a connection with the state route to Grand Lake.

The Granby site was chosen because of the dry ground and good view of the surrounding mountains. The town was named in appreciation of the services of Denver attorney, Granby Hillyer, who worked to layout the town site.

By the 1920's the town was a thriving commercial and service center for local farmers and ranchers. It was during this time that Granby became known for its lettuce which became a major crop for Granby. In fact, at the peak of the market, the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York City proudly advertised Granby Head Lettuce on its menus.

Today Granby boasts some of the finest recreational opportunities that Colorado is so well-known for, including hiking, rafting, hunting, gold medal river water for fishing, horseback riding, and dog sledding. To name a few.

Granby is also known for its local charm and hospitality, as well as its preservation of its western rural roots—I have developed an affinity with this town and appreciate the friendliness and communal spirit of its residents. This community has welcomed me to their town in a manner that greatly reflects the essence of Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me today in commemorating the historic 100th anniversary of Granby, Colorado. I believe that by honoring Granby and all the other historic small towns of this vast nation, we keep the great tradition of the American spirit alive for future generations. We must not forget about the many places that molded our country into what it is today. Centennial celebrations are few and far between, and Granby is deserving of our recognition.
